

Monday Morning Missive

Good morning, friends. I hope that you are having a great Monday morning. God is always so good to us – even on Mondays. I know that sometimes it's tough to get up and get on the move after the weekend, but remember that God has a plan for your life today. Ask Him to show you what it is, and then hang on tight because it's going to be a wild ride.

We've got lots of things happening at First Baptist Church as we begin to open back up, and I'm excited about it all. I had 3 fantastic meetings after church yesterday that energized and excited me for the future of our church. You will be hearing about some of these things in our business meeting and in the weeks and months ahead. Some of the things we will be discussing will be ministry-related, and as we talk about these different opportunities for service, ask God to show you how you need to be involved but recognize that not every ministry is for every person. If all of us would just serve in the areas that God calls us to, we would have great ministries, and no one would ever feel like they are doing too much.

Don't forget about this Sunday. It's going to be "action-packed" with the Lord's Supper in our worship services and Ministerial Staff Appreciation at our business meeting. Then on Wednesday, April 28, we start back with our Fellowship Meal, and we begin our new family worship service, too.

A few of our newer members have asked about Supper Club. During the Summer, some of our folks host a meal at their home. There is no devotional. No study. It is just about eating and fellowshiping with the host deciding the menu. Some of our hosts cook all the food, and some ask individuals to bring something. I believe it is one of the best things we do because it allows us to get to know each other outside of Sunday morning. This year, we will have Supper Club on Sunday evenings between June 27 – July 25. We will skip the July 4th weekend. Here is how it works. If you sign up, I will assign you to join different people in a different home every week. I try to avoid any duplications, but sometimes, that's just not possible. I try to work it out so that you will have the opportunity to be with as many different people as possible. So if you would like to participate or host, please let me know. You can sign up for one week or all of the weeks.

Thank you for being such a great church. I can't wait to see you all on Wednesday.
